A NEW CLUB FORMED.

Young Men's Republican Escort Club Permanently Organized.

THE OFFICERS WERE SELECTED

And an Enthusiastic Meeting With Speeches by Messrs. A. R. Campbell and Curtis Followed—Mr. Campbell Was in Excellent Form and Made a Really Excellent Speech—Democratic Meetings in the North End and South Side.

Last night in the Odd Fellows' block a meeting of young Republicans was held for the purpose of organizing a Young Men's Republican Escort club and effecting a permanent organization to reach beyond the present campaign. The young Republicans of the city turned out in unexpectedly large numbers, fully a hundred being present.

Mr. Hedrick was chosen temporary chairman and then the election of officers took place, which resulted as follows:

President—Dr. William Etzler.

Vice president—R. M. Archer.

Secretary—J. S. Dunnaway.

Treasurer—John W. Kindleberger.

A committee on constitution and by-laws was selected as follows: Joseph May, First ward; William Dinger, Second ward; Joseph Pollack, Third ward; Mr. Robinson, Fourth ward; J. A. Dunnaway, Fifth ward; Mr. Hedrick, Sixth ward; Mr. Page, Seventh ward; Hazlett, Freese, Eighth ward. This committee will meet at once and report at next Monday evening's meeting of the club.

For the position of captain of the marching club there was quite a contest, but two being selected, and others will be chosen at the next meeting:

Captain—W. H. Travis.

First lieutenant—John K. List.

At the conclusion of the new club's meeting speeches were made by Messrs. A. R. Campbell and W. H. C. Curtis, the latter of West Liberty.

Mr. Campbell opened by remarking that he had told the club about everything he knew in this political campaign, but lately new points had been brought up. He then went into an explanation of the reasons for the decline of American shipping interests and that Democratic bugaboo, "the markets of the world." Those markets, he said, are a myth, and the proper thing to do is to take care of our own home markets. The Republican principle is that the outside manufacturer and workman must pay for the privilege of entering our markets. This is done because the foreigner works on a lower basis than we do, and the Republican tariff policy makes up for that lower standard. Until the British workman is brought up to our standard we should never vote into power a party that will throw open our custom houses and allow the pauper made products from abroad to come in free.

The speaker, taking the Democratic organ out of his pocket, literally tore apart the assertions made in its "free trade" literary bureau page. Its assertion, that a $20 overcoat has been reduced 75 per cent to $5 was shown up in all its inconsistency and falsity. "Why," said the speaker, "the cost of the labor in that coat under Republican times was more than $5."

The "higher prices for wool, lower prices for clothing" lie was next taken up and thoroughly ventilated. That, he said, is a cast for both the vote of the farmer and workman. Is it any wonder the people have lost confidence in the Democracy? All the other points of the speaker were liberally applauded and appreciated.

He made a strong appeal to those present to support Captain Dovenor for Congress. This is not a year when a Republican or a Democrat, either, should vote for the "man." Personal preferences should be sent to the rear and the voter should cast his ballot for the man who will faithfully represent the true interest of the district. That man, unquestionably, is Captain Dovenor. Concluding the speaker said: "When we can produce sufficient of everything at home to supply the demand we should see that the home people supply it and competition will regulate the price. We do not want a lower price than that." If another policy is to be maintained our standards will necessarily have to come down to the foreign standard.

Mr. Campbell was followed by Mr.

Curtis, who made an eloquent and interesting talk that was appreciated and enjoyed.

AL AND TOM.

The Elley and Caldwell Combination in the First Ward.

Last night a Democratic meeting was held in the North End rink. The speakers were ex-Attorney General Alfred Caldwell and Attorney General T. S. Riley, and the audience was composed of 150 people at the start and fewer at the end. Mr. Riley opened, devoting most of his time to giving Mr. Whitaker what is popularly known as a "roast." Mr. Caldwell followed with a speech devoted mainly to the same purpose. For some reason or other the Democrats seem to "have it in for" Mr. Whitaker. He must be especially strong, or all the Democratic orators would not devote their entire time to him. It is a safe plan to vote for the men to whom the Democratic speakers show the greatest animosity.

The German-Americans.

Last night Mr. C. J. Wiener made a speech in Teutonia hall, in the Eighth ward, in the German tongue. The German-American Cleveland club escorted the speaker to the hall, headed by the Opera House band. Prominent in the lines were noticed Mr. Paul Heymann, H. B. Grimm, Fred Happy, R. J. Schumann, Charles Schmidt and Brannas, United States Marshal Garden, Deputy Revenue Collector August Wiedebusch, Surveyor of the Port Shaffer, and lots of red lire.

A Water Pipe Burst.

When the high pressure was turned on the old three-inch water main on North Main street a leak sprang, which was not found until yesterday, when the water began to bubble up in the street above Bell's laundry. A force of men was at work all night repairing the damage.

the disorders, diseases, and weaknesses peculiar to women—by the prompt action of Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription. It's a powerful, invigorating tonic, and a strengthening nerve. It brings relief for sleeplessness, backache and bearing-down sensations.

Mrs. CORA CUMMINGS of No. 22 E. Yates St., Chicago, N.Y., writes: "I took your Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription when I was run down and through the warm weather. It worked like a charm on my system and I am a good deal better in flesh now. It is the best medicine in the world for 'female troubles,' for I took almost all kinds of Patent Medicines, and doctors' prescriptions without benefit. There is hardly a day passes but that I recommend it to some of my lady friends."
